An Amazon Rain Forest

ADVENTURE

Movement, music and adventure await children who participate in a free storytelling event at the J.D. McCarty Center.

Children will hear the story "The Rainforest Grew All Around" and perform physical movements that relate to characters and objects in the book. The activity also includes a craft and the use of props during the story.

This storytelling adventure is offered by the center's speech-language pathology department to recognize May as "Better Hearing and Speech Month."

So, come stretch your body, breath and imagination.
